The Life and strange surprising Adventures of Robinson Crusoe, of York, Mariner: Who lived 28 Years all alone in an uninhabited Island on the Coast of America, near the Mouth of the Great River Oroonoke, having been cast on shore by a wreck, wherein all the Men perished but himself. With an account how he was at last strangely deliver'd by Pyrates. Written by himself. The 4th Edition. To which is added the Map of the World, in which is delineated the Voyages of Robinson Crusoe. Printed for W. Taylor, at the Ship in Peter-Nether-Lane. M. B. The pretended Abridgement of this Book, clandestinely printed for T. Cox, at the Amsterdam Coffee-House, does not contain the third Part of the Work, but consists only of some Gentler's Passages incoherently tacked together; wherein the Author's Sense throughout is wholly mistaken, the Matters of Fact misrepresented, and the Moral Reflections misapplied. It's hoped the Publick will not give Encouragement to so base a Practice, the Proprietor intending to prosecute the Venders according to Law.
